440th dominates Sports Fest boxing

By Leonard Gousha

Participants from the 17th, 32nd and 440th Signal Battalions met on May 15 and 16 in Darmstadt for an action-packed two days of Sports Fest activities.

The events included volleyball, basketball, racquetball and boxing and drew crowds of more than 300 spectators.

Volleyball

The 17th Signal Battalion won the mixed and all male volleyball championship while HHC 440th dominated the basketball court becoming the champions in that sport.

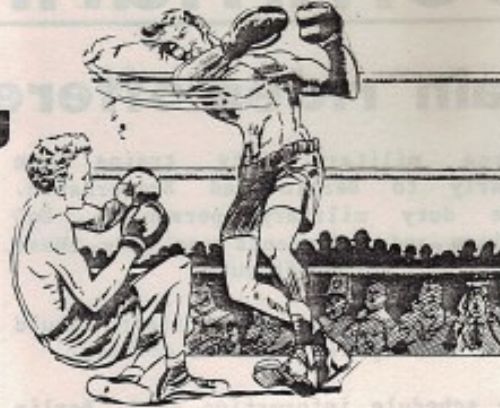

Racquetball

Victoria Radcliffe, A Co. 32nd Signal, blasted her way to the brigade racquetball championship and Milton Cuevas, A Co. 17th, became the mens champion. Runner up was John McDonald of C Co. 32nd.

Boxing

During the two-fisted boxing action the 440th creamed their opponents taking the brigade championship. HHC 440th fought their way to become the overall company champions.
