Army pays for POV pickup

Bremerhaven-bound service members are now entitled to reimbursement for one-way transportation expenses incurred when taking their vehicle to or picking it up from the northern port city, according to finance officials.

The new Army policy, which is retro-active to Oct. 1, 1981 authorizes service members 16 cents per mile when traveling to or from Bremerhaven.

Soldiers can receive the travel pay if they have Permanent Change of Station (PCS) orders and a valid government vehicle shipping paper (DD Form 728).

All service members who are eligible should contact their unit personnel center to get assistance in preparing the necessary paperwork.

Steak night has best beef in Germany

AAFES-Europe Steak Nights are an on going service that soldiers and their families in Europe can count on. Thirty-thousand pounds of U.S. beef is cut into T-bone, Club, Sirloin, Cube, Minute, Round, Swiss and New York steaks monthly at AAFES Gruenstadt meat plant. U.S. Department of agriculture (USDA) grade good or better beef is inspected by the USDA before it leaves the states and by U.S. Army veterinary inspectors.

According to an AAFES spokesman, "U.S. beef cattle are fed on grass and fattened on grain before going to market. The grain produces "marbling," a pattern of fat particles throughout the meat that results in tender, juicy, and flavorful steaks. European cattle are not fattened on grain, resulting in very little "marbling," so steaks are not nearly as tender and juicy as U.S. produced beef." (AAFES Release).

From Albania to Zimbabwe, we have it

The Brigade Public Affairs Office maintains a background reading file on countries around the world from Albania to Zimbabwe. Soldiers wishing information on a country's profile, government, economy, history and people can stop by and research the on-hand publications. Also on file is an additional reading list on each country for further research. (2315-656)
