From REFORGER to a Volksfest

The Hoechst Sub-Community is planning a volksfest in October to welcome home brigade soldiers from REFORGER and thank them for a job well done, according to SFC Frank Kidd, Community Deputy Installation Coordinator.

Kidd said the fest, scheduled for October 14-17 will offer a beer tent, carnival rides, entertainment and other activities, all located at the sports field near the McNair gym.

"During the four-day fest," Kidd said, "we will offer disco, country and western, Octoberfest and variety music each day."

The fest will begin Thursday, October 14 from 4 p.m. until midnight, Friday from 3 p.m. to midnight, Saturday from noon until 12 p.m. and noon until 8 p.m. Sunday.

Off-limits area declared in Hoechst

It was announced in August that an off limits restriction has been placed on Adelon Str. 31, Frankfurt/M-Hoechst.

The restriction warning includes entering the establishment or conducting business with firms, individuals and organizations and is punishable under the Uniform Code of Military Justice.

The off limits area has been approved and will be supported by the city officials of Hoechst. According to sub-community officials, the German police will detain, identify and report all violators to the command.

Barber Shop closes

The McNair barber shop will be closed during the entire month of September, according to Mr. Klaus Bork, the shop concessionaire, due to the REFORGER exercise.

Hoechst C C C gets a face lift and privacy

The Hoechst Community Counseling Center still has the same mission, to help soldiers with problems, but they have gained a new look.

The center, located beside the McNair gym, recently underwent construction and renovation costing more than $16,000, according to Sp4. Leslie Custer, a community counselor.

Custer said the newly constructed walls add complete privacy, "Something", she said, "we must have in our work."

The building also has new latrine facilities, windows and received some fresh coats of paint.

New McNair Chapel hours

Worship service hours have changed at McNair Chapel. Protestant services are now 9:30 a.m. and Catholic Mass has been changed to 11 a.m. Additional information can be received by calling 2315-893.

Gym closes for repairs

The McNair Gym will be closed due to renovation from August 30 to September 10.
