Alpha, 17th wins McNair Flag Championship

By Steven Pritchett

Alpha Company, 17th Signal Battalion, recently won the McNair Flag football league Championship by defeating C Co. 32nd Signal Battalion in a tough, hard fought contest which ended in an overtime victory for "Awesome Alpha."

Throughout the season, the team was led by a strong offensive backfield; Jerome Weaver starred at the quarterback position while Winston Cooper and Randy Powe held the running positions. The defense was spearheaded by Robert Brown and Donald Green.

Credit for the outstanding season also goes to the teams coach, Walter Franklin, who played semi-professional football while stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash. The win in the McNair Championship gave Alpha Company the Brigade Commander's Cup for the 1982 season for overall excellence in sport achievement. (Capt. Pritchett is the A Co. 17th Signal, Company Commander.)
